A learned pedagogue at Nantucket, used every morning to read passages in the bible and expound the same as he proceeded, in order that by asking questions as to how much they remembered of his comments he might ascertain who were the bright boys of the school. On one occasion he read from the book of Job thus:

"There was a man in the land of Uz, and his name was Job, who feared God and eschewed evil." "Eschewed evil—that is, he eschewed evil as I do tobacco—he would have nothing to do with it."

With this very clear and forcible elucidation of the word 'eschew,' he proceeded, and a number of verses were read and commented on in a similarly clear and intelligible manner.

After a long interval, when the young mind had had time to digest its food, the pedagogue called upon one of the youngest boys, and the following dialogue ensued:

"Who was the man who lived in Uz?"" inquired the schoolmaster.

"Job."

"Was he a good man?"

"Yes."

"What did he do?"

"He chewed tobacco when nobody else would have anything to do with it," was the answer.

The boy was permitted to take his seat.

A man in La Cross, Wisconsin, lately rushed to the river, swearing that he would drown himself. When he had waded to the depth of his waist, his wife followed, seized him by the hair, and then, as a local editor describes it, she led him back till he reached a place where the water was about two feet deep where she pulled him over backwards, [soused him under and pulled his head up again.] "Drown yourself, eh? (down he went)—leave me to father the brats! (down he went again)—get drunk, eh! (another souse)—and start for the river! (another dip) better use water instead of rotgut! (another dip and shake of his head)—I'll learn you how to leave me a widow, and all the men gone soldiering!" After sozzling him to her heart's content, she led him out a wetter if not a better man, and escorted him into the house and closed the door.

They have a story in Chicago about a drunken captain who met a private of his company in the same condition. The captain ordered him to halt, and endeavoring in vain to assume a firm position on his feet and to talk with dignified severity, exclaimed, "Private Smith, I'll give you til (hic) four o'clock to gissober in."

"Cap'n," replied the soldier, "as you'r (hic) [illegible] tight drunker man I'll give you til five o'clock to get sober in."

A squad of Indian volunteers out scouting came across a female in a log cabin, in the mountains. After the usual salutation one of them asked her,

"Well, old lady, are you a secesh?"

"No," was her answer.

"Are you Union?"

"No."

"What are you then?"

"A baptist, an' always have been."

The Hoosiers let down.

A young gent (who had trodden upon a lady's toes in getting out of the omnibus)—"I beg pardon Madam. I could not help it. I assure you."

The young lady (in the blandest manner possible) "Oh! don't make any apology, sir I beg, it was my fault entirely. I wish that some people would keep their eyes open and be more careful when they are passing other people."

"Now, then, my hearties," said a gal lant English Captain, "you have a tough battle before you. Fight like heroes till your powder's gone, then—run! I'm a little lame, and I'll start now."

"Tom, are you broke?" "Yes," said Tom, with a sigh, "and so broke that if steamboats were selling at a cent apiece I couldn't buy a gangway plank."

Mrs. Dowdy says that one of her boys knows nothing, and the other does. The question is which knows the most?

WEDNESDAY MORNING OCT 2 [illegible] 1861

Obedience to the Laws

The Advertiser under this head on Monday would endeavor by an extract from the New York Observer, to drag that valuable journal into a deadly embrace with [illegible] Having cast its own lot in the [illegible] it desires to drag a journal of high and acknowledged reputation [illegible] level When the Advertiser publishes articles like the following—which we clip from the New York Observer—we shall then think a great revolution has taken place in the mind of its editor

From the New York Observer

THE VERY STONES CRY OUT AGAINST THEM —A gentleman who recently visited the National capital, copied the following inscriptions from two blocks of marble awaiting their places in the Washington Monument — The blocks were ordered by the Legislatures of the respective States

"LOUISIANA

'EVER FAITHFUL TO THE CONSTITUTION AND THE UNION'

"TENNESSEE

'THE FEDERAL UNION IT MUST BE PRESERVED'

Could a more fitting rebuke be administered to these States, which have proved false to their own principles than [illegible] in the words graven upon stone, by the authority of the States themselves?

From the New York Observer

WHAT A SLAVEHOLDER THINKS —In a speech delivered at Cincinnati on the 2d inst the Rev W B Carter an Old School Presbyterian clergyman of East Tennessee, said

"I am a slaveholder My ancestors for three generations have been slaveholders therefore I cannot be charged with any prejudice against slavery But I tell you here, I regard the Union of these States as of infinitely more value than all the negroes in America and Africa too Nay I go further, and say that, if the prosecution of this war, and the perpetuation of the Union require that African Slavery shall die, then I say let it perish

From the New York Observer

THE NORTH A UNIT —The union of all parties for the support of the government in the great struggle to preserve its integrity and our nationality, is the best possible evidence of the feeling of the country PARTY is lost sight of when the State demands the united services of all her sons No position is more truly national patriotic and unimpeachable than that which is avowed by the Tammany Hall Democrats of this city We copy an extract from a recent manifesto issued by this body of men whose old fashioned Jacksonian politics have been known all over the United States for the last forty years They say

"Tammany Hall is honestly and earnestly in favor of prosecuting the war for the preservation of our National Union as it is [illegible] maintained by the constitutional authorities of the country It yields to the Government in all its legitimate measures [illegible] the success of the national arms [illegible] vigorous and unflinching support It has no sympathy with the rebellion in the Southern States nor with the traitors who would [illegible] armed hostility to the nation [illegible] who would not only destroy our glorious Union, but all its inestimable blessings [illegible] much greatness power and prosperity [illegible] whole people but [illegible] would also [illegible] the cause of constitutional liberty and republican government throughout the world

"Tammany Hall would [illegible] attain the most complete party success which would embarrass the government in [illegible] for the Union [illegible] tion, or which would give aid [illegible] to the enemy, at this [illegible] juncture. It holds [illegible] try first and paramount that of party second and subordinate

"The cause of the present war and the responsibility of the measures of the Administration will be adjudged at the appropriate period; this is not the time to consider that question We have now but one duty to perform, and that is to do with all our hearts and with all our energies what we may to save the country and preserve all its constitutional [illegible] the Union [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] Union [illegible] [illegible] it is [illegible] that the Union [illegible] will [illegible] [illegible] country [illegible] support to the Union, the [illegible] which we [illegible] would [illegible]

It matters [illegible] what name a man has [illegible] called in the political associations into which [illegible] our divisions in time of peace [illegible] the Government [illegible] all parties [illegible] and [illegible] that [illegible] by rebel [illegible] no true man will [illegible] sacrifice his allegiance to party for the sake of saving in its strength and its [illegible] the country This is the [illegible]

These extracts from the New York Observer [illegible] that paper in regard to [illegible] now in progress in this country They show that its position is with the [illegible] and that it is for the effectual crushing out of this rebellion The representations of the Advertiser [illegible] want of patriotism on the part of the New York Observer, are false and slanderous

A Falsehood Corrected.

EDITOR'S OREGONIAN

In the San Francisco Herald of the 10th inst, is an account of the shooting of Captain Staples received by the editor of that paper from an eye witness It contains the following paragraph

"In the meantime [illegible] was arrested [illegible] and an immense crowd of [illegible] citizens [illegible] As soon as the [illegible] known their [illegible] indignation knew [illegible] bound and among the first [illegible] for the immediate hanging of Patterson [illegible] formed [illegible] the editor of the Christian [illegible] and several old and very highly respected citizens [illegible] and Sheriff Starr was obliged to procure [illegible] and plant it in front of the [illegible] and even that would have been disregarded [illegible] the [illegible] of the Sheriff [illegible] the prisoner should not escape"

The allusion to me is totally untrue I was at my home nearly a mile from the scene of the fatal shooting, at the time it occurred and knew nothing of it until nine or ten o'clock the next day [illegible] of course it is wholly untrue that I clamored for "the immediate hanging of Patterson" [illegible] at a loss to account for the motive to such a willful slander By inserting this [illegible] will [illegible] favor [illegible] H [illegible]

Editor Pacific Christian Advocate

Portland, Oregon, Oct 21 1861

If the Rev Mr Pearne [illegible] the [illegible] in the San Francisco Herald we are at a very little loss up on that point. Rev Mr Pearne stands up for the law and the constitution [illegible] both [illegible] and [illegible] to sustain both at every cost and at every hazard [illegible] an illustration of [illegible] the falsehood [illegible] gentleman in the San Francisco Herald

CITY.

THE STATE VS. F. PATTERSON.—In this case application was made to the County Judge, as upon habeas corpus, for a reduction of the amount of bail required by the committing Magistrate. The evidence was agreed upon to be the published testimony detailed in the papers of the city. The bail was fixed at five thousand dollars, and on giving surety in that amount for his appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court, the accused was discharged from custody. We understand his sureties are B. Stark, A. D. Shelby, T. J. Holmes, and S. N. Arrigoni.

NEARLY A FIRE.—Yesterday forenoon the wall paper, at the Tremont Saloon, on Front street, ignited from the stove-pipe. The flames were making headway to the roof of the house, when the application of a few buckets of water extinguished them without alarm.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Gotlieb Hummell made complaint before the Recorder yesterday morning, charging Julius Korp with threatening to do his person some great bodily injury. His Honor, after hearing the evidence, bound the defendant over to keep the peace for the period of two months, with the people of the State of Oregon, and Mr. Hummell in particular.

PARDONED.—A. J. Bates, who was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary at the last term of the Circuit Court, for an assault with intent to kill, has been pardoned by Governor Whiteaker, and sent his way rejoicing.

SALT MILL.—Capt. Dodge is erecting a mill to grind salt, in this city. The salt brought by the Ella Florence is a most capital article.

PREPARE FOR WINTER.—Our citizens had better be laying in their wood for winter.

FOR VICTORIA.—The steamer Pacific is to sail for Victoria this morning at 7 o'clock. In another column she is advertised to sail for San Francisco on Monday next.

The last news from Japan represented that there was a disposition to stop trade with foreigners, and to insult and abuse them. It was suggested that a trial of Christian metal might be made for their benefit, soon. An attempt had been made to assassinate the members of the British Legation.

There is evidence that a large naval expedition is fitting out at New York. Ten of the largest class ocean steamers and a large number of other vessels will belong to it. To go where?

It is certain that the rebels must carry Washington and Maryland, or they can never hope for a recognition. Will they do it?

It was expected that Gen. Sumner would leave San Francisco for the East on the steamer of the 21st. He takes with him ten thousand stand of arms—being a portion of the arms sent to this coast by the traitor Floyd.

Commander Rowan writes from Hatteras Inlet that ten regiments have been recalled from Virginia to defend North Carolina. The secessionists residing near the water are going into the interior. The poorer classes remain for protection, to avow their Union sentiments.

MARRIED:

Swett, the celebrated [illegible] and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape, an efficient remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Effeminacy or Slowness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Sold by all Druggists and by DANIEL SWETT, Proprietor, 55 Calif[illegible] street, San Francisco. aug26dtf

☞ The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Recent is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of the age in Europe and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary Army, for more extended labors Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the leader in this branch of his profession throughout the United States and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time are corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. june26dawly

Secession Logic.

Says George to Ben: "However you feel,
My conscious safety quits me;
The way the people we deceive,
I own it quite appears me."
"It's dirty work," quoth pious Ben,
"But this will quite relieve us—
We don't deceive, whate'er we say,
For no one will believe us."

Items of News.

Southern privateers have already taken sixty-nine vessels, of all descriptions, the value of which, exclusive of cargoes, is not far short of a million five hundred thousand dollars.

Lady Franklin, at late dates, was at Carson City, Nevada Territory. She intends to make a thorough examination of the Washoe silver mines.

The shipments of cotton from India, the present year, it is estimated, will amount to 1,000,000 bales. That which was raised from Egyptian seed, is a superior article.

Simcoe Reservation.—The Christian Advocate states that Rev. J. H. Wilbur, teacher of the Indian youth at Fort Simcoe, and Messrs. Wright, Hall and others, have resigned their positions at that Agency.

Left Out.—The Advertiser left its prayer for the destruction of this Government out of its weekly of the 11th inst.

Look Out for Them.—When the White Feather party talk about the peaceful solution of the present question, depend upon it they only mean a peaceful dissolution!

Flour.—The Oregon City Mills, Mr. Daniel Harvey's, within the last ten months, have shipped ten thousand barrels of flour to Victoria.

In his last letter to the Philadelphia Press, Col. Forney reiterates the charge against Miss Parmelia Cunningham of making Mt. Vernon a sort of headquarters for traitors, a charge that was denied when first made a few weeks ago.

A Truth.—The South have rushed to arms to destroy the Union, and the North have reluctantly taken up arms to defend it.

Of all diseases the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the back and Head, Female Irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians [illegible]. The medicines [illegible] vegetable [illegible] mercury or balsam. During [illegible] the Atlantic States and [illegible] to the jaws of death many thousands who [illegible] stages of the above mentioned [illegible] physicians [illegible] afflicted [illegible] and certain [illegible] the greatest [illegible] which will [illegible] But should [illegible] the disease [illegible] the constitutions and the current of life [illegible] which betrays itself in scrofula, tetters, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a short existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the patients from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent and their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend them perusal to the attention of all afflicted:

Certificate—The undersigned, desirous of benefiting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrolled passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months of their treatment, I found, to my unspeakable horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture; and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength, and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate inexperienced into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco:—

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1856. Signed.

[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

Marysville, June 21, 1861.

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir: I have taken the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not altogether got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute, with my constitution as I thought, ruined entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves, so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from all symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire stoppage of those emissions, which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, as I think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS HAVEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

Certificate.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and for causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of [illegible], which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my labor, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet deplored the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger, as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my misery. While in this state, and having, previous to my illness, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to try the seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances and of my inability to reward him for his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I deem it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
